April Trestle Board

April 1, 2016

Master's Message

Brethren,

Welcome to the month of April. It appears we are going to have a busy month. I want to thank each Brother for their help and support for the Grand Master's reception in March. The reception, luncheon and entertainment were all highly complimented by the Grand Lodge Family. Grand Master, David Perry said this was the best reception he had ever attended. We presented the Grand Master with a wooden plaque with all of the Lodges of Orange County listed and the First Lady a beautiful Lladro Figurine, which they absolutely loved.

Hugo Ramos, HA, Master

A sizeable check was presented to the Grand Master for his Special Project of Housing Development at the two Masonic Home Centers in California, providing additional living accommodations for those who are in desperate need of housing. The Grand Master's Reception in March was hosted by OCMOA at the DeMolay Center and the home of our Lodge. Anaheim Lodge received great recognition for their support in this great event.

Thanks to each of the Brethren for their support. Each of you have given me the encouragement and guidance to Building OUR Lodge. As we go out in the Community and promote the Craft, I ask each of you to look for those men that could be an asset to the Lodge and promote the Craft to those that may ask the "Question"!

What we have been able to accomplish this year is bringing men into the Lodge that have a genuine desire to make their contribution to the Craft, our Community, their families and to our Lodge. Remember our Family of Lodge Members are here to promote Good men and where our Masonic traditions and teachings make them "Better Men" and contribute in their own way to our Fraternity and the communities we serve. Our Grand Lodge needs our support more than ever to promote our Masonic beliefs and helping our fellow man and Brothers.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to a great month of April.

Fraternally,
Hugo Ramos, HA
Master

From the West

My Brothers,

"Audi, Vide, Trace"

"Hear, See, and Be Silent"

Adopted as the motto of the Grand Lodge of England in 1813.

As members of Anaheim Lodge #207 F&AM we have taken an obligation binding us to follow this motto adopted by our Brothers in the Grand Lodge of England in 1813. These three words bind us to them as well as they bind them to us. and all Masonic Brothers around the world.

Numerous subjects are discussed in our Tiled Lodges and they should be left at the door when we leave the Lodge Room. Statements made on the "square" or "level" should be treated as such, between ourselves.

Anaheim Lodge #207 is strong and growing stronger. We have experienced some pains (not all pains are bad) but we will power through them. The truth be known all lodges should experience such pains, growth is good. We are getting stronger by our deeds and accomplishments. Remember when asked to do a job or fill a position, take it as a compliment, you would not be asked if the person asking didn't think you were up to the job.

Remember my brothers. "Real men wear aprons".

Fraternally yours,
Robb Morris
Senior Warden

Robb Morris, Sr. Warden

From the South

Brethren,

As the year soars on, let us not forget where we all started. From the youngest Entered Apprentice to the seat of the Worshipful Master in the East, we are all brothers. Some brothers have come and gone, but the lodge was and continues to be a place for gathering. Let us gather together for Stated meeting dinner and enjoy the fellowship and goodwill towards all mankind that is our trademark.

Remember that we all meet on the level and are here not only for ourselves, but also for each other. That being said, let us not forget that obligation and gather in the kitchen to clean up after dinner.

Fraternally,
Andrew Bowen
Junior Warden

Br. Marx Kamashian is Honored with the Golden Veteran Award by the Officers and Members of Vallee de France Lodge. Marx is 83, still working in his pharmacy and golfing regularly.
